By Train:

The nearest railway station is Kalyani (MAIN). The best way to reach Kalyani is by local train from Sealdah station to Kalyani (Main) station. It takes about one and one-half hours (1.5 hours) to reach Kalyani by train from Sealdah. Trains to Kalyani Simanta, Ranaghat, Shantipur, Gede, and Krishnanagar City stop at the Kalyani (Main) station. Use the overbridge (footbridge) to cross the railway tracks, to descend towards “Sangam Cinema” side. Walk right for about 30 ft. to the e-rickshaw stand. Ask to be dropped off at the NIBMG New Campus (popular among common people as Project Campus). It would charge 20-30 Rs/ person.

By car:

Via B.T. Road : Turn right at the Sodepur crossing. Keep going for about 10 minutes, until you hit the Kalyani Expressway crossing. Turn left on Kalyani Expressway. Keep going for 50-60 minutes. You will reach Kanchrapara crossing; a four-way crossing. Do not turn, keep going straight. Cross the next traffic light, but keep going straight. You will now cross a bridge, over a water body. Be alert as soon as you cross the bridge and look out to the left. You will see a board that says “National Institute of Biomedical Genomics, Next Right”. Turn on next right. Keep looking to the left, but go straight and do not turn. You will hit railway tracks. Keep looking to your left for direction boards. Follow those directions and you will reach NIBMG’s Campus (popularly called as Project Campus by the locals).
